THE FOCUS OF WORSHIP

What do you think of when you see or hear the word, “worship”? Do you think of singing and music? Do you think of a particular place or time? Do you envision yourself with other people or alone?

One of my favorite quotes about worship is by William Temple, one of the greatest Archbishops of Canterbury in modern times. Born in 1881, in Exeter, England, Temple grew up to become a philosopher, a statesman and a pioneer in the ecumenical movement. He died in 1944 but is still remembered as a historic church leader and a “spiritual giant.” This is what William Temple said about worship:

“To worship is to quicken the conscience by the holiness of God, to feed the mind with the truth of God, to purge the imagination by the beauty of God, to open the heart to the love of God, to devote the will to the purpose of God.”

Each element of that definition expands our understanding and appreciation of worship. Worship impacts our conscience, mind, imagination, heart, and will. Worship is transformational. As much as we all have preferences and likes and dislikes regarding specific aspects or forms of worship, ultimately, we’re to remember that worship isn’t about us and what we want to hear or sing or even where we want to sit. Worship is about the loving and holy God who graciously invites us into the divine presence and calls us to a life of love and service.

One aspect of worship we all miss is being together in community. Our plan is to resume in-person worship at 8:30 and 10:00 am on Sunday, March 7. When we resume, we will continue to follow the guidelines provided by the Commonwealth to keep people healthy and to prevent the spread of the virus.

We have endured one of the more perilous years in the United States in at least the last 75 years. Yet through it all, I hope and pray that your faith has helped to sustain you and that what we have offered online has assisted you in persevering and holding on to hope.

The first three Sundays in March we will complete our Spiritual Disciplines series, “Tools to Build Your Spiritual Life.” I hope we can give thanks for what we’ve learned and experienced during our journey through these twelve weeks on meditation, prayer, fasting, study, simplicity, solitude, submission, service, confession, worship, guidance and celebration. I hope you will continue to have all twelve of these “tools” in your spiritual toolbox and that you will use them regularly or when they’re most needed and appropriate.

Looking ahead, March 28 is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week. The Maundy Thursday Service will be at 7:00 pm, and the Good Friday service will be at noon. On Easter Sunday we will have a sunrise service at 6:00 am at Nauset Beach, and three services in the sanctuary at 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 am.

Grace and Peace, Doug Scalise

To worship is to quicken the conscience by the holiness of God, to feed the mind with the truth of God, to purge the imagination by the beauty of God, to open the heart to the love of God, to devote the will to the purpose of God.

Creativity During COVID

I am hopeful that by the time this article has been published that many, if not most of you, have started receiving your vaccine. I am prayerful that we can put this pandemic in our rearview mirror soon! That being said, I need to share with you some of the great creativity that I have witnessed to counteract the restrictions we've all been under.

I attended a virtual leadership meeting sponsored by TABCOM wherein various churches shared what they were doing to connect their parishioners while they cannot attend in person. Many churches are doing what we have done, stream live services and/or upload recordings to their websites. It is clear that all felt it was a "mission" to get God's word out and make sure there was regular contact with the parishioners. Some of the items that stood out in conversation were:

- Some parishioners dressed for the service even when they were watching from home. It made it feel more like "going to church."
- The most challenging connections were with the children and older congregants that were unfamiliar with technology.
- Some churches added animation to the sermons to bring attention to key points for children watching the adult sermon. Others were initiating children's sermons into their service. Pastor Barbara has launched online Sunday School.
- One church had a pastor who also works at MIT in cyber security, and they distributed refurbished iPads and laptops to folks who needed help with online access. The only issue they had which they couldn't overcome were households where there was no internet service.

It was fun to share everyone's experiences and challenges, but I would be remiss if I didn't credit the BBC staff who have energetically pursued solutions to a host of issues that arose this past year. Their flexibility and willingness to pursue solutions for the church members has been impressive. THANK YOU BBC STAFF!!!!

The home gifted to the church by the late Flo Roberts is in the process of being prepared for sale. The documentation and other requirements have been completed so it should soon be on the market and provide funding for additional efforts in our Love/Grow/Share mission once the obligations associated with the property are met. Thank you to the many volunteers that are making this happen.

The annual meeting will be held in April or May depending on when we can gather safely. Since a budget is necessary to keep everything moving forward, an information session was scheduled on February 27 to provide folks the opportunity to ask questions and see the allocation of resources for the coming year.

Efforts to assess and, where necessary, improve the governance of the church to meet its needs are ongoing, and the goal remains to have recommendations by the time of the annual meeting for the congregation to consider.

Please stay safe and healthy, but if you need assistance of any kind, please contact the office so we can try to connect you with the appropriate help.

As always, if you have concerns, comments or questions, please reach out to any member of the Advisory Council.

God bless,

Su Ballantine

If you have questions or concerns and need help in signing up, please contact Lisa Freeman at 508-896-3299 or Lfree125@comcast.net.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Volunteers needed on March 5 & March 6.

We were blessed this past year when a member bequeathed her house to BBC in her will. After taking ownership of the house, it was decided by the Advisory Council that the best option was to put the house on the market. The house at 191 Blackthorne Road in Marstons Mills will need to be cleared out before we are able to do that. Pastor David and Bill Harwood will be organizing teams of people to come and help out on March 5 & 6 at 9:00 am. They plan to meet at the church at 8:15 am both days for anyone that would prefer to follow them. Please be sure to wear a mask and bring work gloves.

Volunteers needed at Faith Family Kitchen.

Cape Cod Council of Churches is looking for a few additional volunteers to serve at Faith Family Kitchen. Faith Family Kitchen continues to serve hot meals every Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights from 6–7pm. If you self-identify as someone who is less likely to have a severe negative reaction to COVID-19 and are willing to follow all safety guidelines, please contact Jeni at jenimwheeler@gmail.com or 781-248-5753.

Help Beautify the Sanctuary for Easter

Easter Lilies will once again fill our church with color. These plants are made possible through the generous donations from the congregation and cost approximately $25 each. We welcome donations of any size and we hope to have a glorious display to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. (Unfortunately, we can't guarantee that if you donate you will be able to take a plant home.) Your name will be recognized as a donor and those honored will appear in the April Beacon. We are also asking for volunteers to deliver the lilies after Easter to folks in nursing homes and to those that are homebound.

Please fill out this form and include a check payable to BBC Flower Team, and mail to the church office, attention Flower Team. Please call Pat Foot (508) 240-5346 with questions.

TABCOM LEADERSHIP WEBINAR

Learning Opportunities with TABCOM

Over the past few months, I have had two unique opportunities to learn from our Region. I am grateful for the New Ministers Orientation day last fall and, more recently, the TABCOM Leadership Day held via Zoom on January 23, 2021 which several members from BBC also attended virtually.

I attended sessions from Maria Reilly, Assistant Director of Finance and Missions, Rev. Vena Ulysse, and Rev. Dr. Mary Miller, as well as an incredible time of worship in the evening. I learned about Virtual Conferences for Church Groups, which helped form my thoughts for our Evening with Pepper Choplin, and experienced prophetic preaching by Rev. Daryn Stylianopoulos and energizing music and worship leadership.

Dr. Miller, our Region leadership, and the host church have done a wonderful job keeping us call connected during these difficult times. I am grateful for BBC participation and TABCOM guidance in my professional learning, and I am truly surrounded by a great crowd of leaders and learners.

Blessings for your March!

Rev. Joe Greemore

More News from TABCOM Webinar

I attended the TABCOM Leadership Webinar 2021 in January. The presentation was given by Eddie Hammett who is a Master Certified Coach and longtime deacon from Asheville, NC. Eddie talked about deacons as agents of restoration, redemption, reconciliation and hope. He said one of the biggest challenges for deacons is clarifying what they do in the church—deacons usually work with the pastor and the congregation.

He said he had learned a lot about the church during COVID-19. Some churches are now online and have designated online pastors to help with their growing congregations.

He mentioned that deacons need to know what their focused ministries are like flowers, cards or finances. Most importantly being in service to others and showing up. We should show up with people and walk alongside them. He said that deacons also need to have boundaries. This is so they don't have compassion fatigue. So we need to know ourselves well enough to let go when necessary.

Eddie and I had a nice chat before anyone else came on the webinar. I mentioned to him what we are doing at BBC and he was very impressed! We seem to be doing much of what he talked about. I was glad for the opportunity to attend this webinar.

PRAISE & THANKSGIVING

Thank You Missions Team!

Thank you all for inviting Life Together International (LTI) to become a larger part of BBC's missions ministry!

Now that Life Together is your ministry too, and because you are making so much possible through your robust support, I thought you would like to see where we are headed together, and what you've been up to! ;-)

I wish I could go day-by-day and tell you everything that has happened throughout 2020, but that would take more time than is reasonable. So here are some of the highlights at...

<http://www.lifetogetherinternational.org/>

As you read, I hope you feel even a fraction of the joy I feel from seeing what God has done, is doing, and what I believe the Lord will do through the ministry of Life Together International. God bless you all, and again, thank you so very much!

Happy New Year Doug and friends!

At the end of February, Herb and I are moving to New Hampshire, to live close to our daughter, Carolyn and her husband, Jim. They have wanted us to move to NH, for a very long time. Please make this announcement to all, for us.

We have appreciated having the BBC family the mainstay of our lives and religious experience. God is making this a smooth transition, so He has given us His approval to make this move.

Many, many thanks for the fellowship; annual fair; for Chris's beautiful and inspirational music; and so many other ways we and others at BBC have spread the word of God and His many blessings.

Herb and I are fine. We are looking forward to new adventures.

"May God bless you and keep you. May His countenance fall upon you and give you peace."

Herb & June Summers

To BBC,

You all helped make my 100th birthday enjoyable with the stunning bouquet. I kept it in the lobby and all the residents of Wells Court got to watch the gorgeous lilies and other flowers slowly open. What a day brightener! God bless you all.

Gratefully, Jannette Caley

PRAISE & THANKSGIVING

Dear Brewster Baptist Community,

Thank you so much for your generous donation of $5,000. COVID-19 has taught us so many important lessons. One we have known for a long time. COVID confirmed it. This is an AMAZING Community. A community that cares deeply.

Thank you for making a difference for so many.

Peace, Kindness & Hope,

Cindy Horgan
Executive Director
Cape Cod Children's Place

Dear Deacon Bill Harwood,

Today I received your most generous donation from Brewster Baptist Church of $750 to the Pearl Fund of the Refugee Support Action Team of the Nauset Interfaith Association. This fund is to help an asylum family here on Cape Cod who were persecuted for speaking the truth in their country of origin, The Democratic Republic of Congo. Thank you very much for your help with this family, especially as we approach the celebration of the birth of Jesus signifying that we are all members of one family, God's family. We also thank God for all of the people of Brewster Baptist and for your ministry in the wider community.

Faithfully,

Fr. Ken Campbell
Nauset Interfaith

The church will host an evening of fine dining, super entertainment and gracious hostility.

At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be 'What is Hell?' Come early and listen to our choir practice.

The ladies of the Church have cast off clothing of every kind. They may be seen in the basement on Friday afternoon.

This evening at 7pm there will be hymn singing in the park across from the Church. Bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

Low Self-Esteem Support Group will meet Thursday at 7pm. Please use the back door.

The Associate Minister unveiled the church's new tithing campaign slogan last Sunday: 'I Upped My Pledge – Up Yours.'
